BANKING

Decision No. 13/2018/QD-TTg on licensing procedures for approval to over-the-limit credit extension by credit institutions and branches of foreign banks

Effective date: 1 May 2018

Credit institutions and branches of foreign banks shall comply with requirements on credit limits as follows:

- the total amount of credit extended to a customer shall not exceed 15% of capital, and the total amount of credit extended to a customer and the relevant parties shall not exceed 25% of the capital, of banks or branches of foreign banks.
- the total amount of credit extended to a customer shall not exceed 25% of capital, and the total amount of credit extended to a customer and the relevant parties shall not exceed 50% of the capital, of non-bank credit institutions.

The credit institutions and branches of foreign banks may extend an over-the-limit credit to a customer if (1) the loan purpose is relevant to socio-economic projects and (2) a syndicated loan does not meet the customer's demand. An approval from the Prime Minister is a must. For this purpose, the credit institutions/branches of foreign banks and the customers shall meet certain requirements such as bad debts, loan purpose, feasibility of project and other banking requirements.
