LEGAL UPDATES - FIGHTING COVID-19 SUPPORTIVE MEASURES FOR EMPLOYEES AND ENTERPRISES IN VIETNAM

The current novel coronavirus (Covid-19) outbreak, which began in December 2019, presents a significant challenge for the entire world. Vietnam has declared COVID-19 nationwide epidemic. Measures to curb the spread of the coronavirus such as travel restrictions, events cancellation, and prohibition on gatherings have cut manufacturing and domestic demand sharply in Vietnam. The Vietnam Government has, however, been acting decisively and unveiled measures for employees and enterprises, addressing concerns essentially about economic implications as well as ensuring business continuity.

In the Legal Updates, we continue to address frequently asked questions from employers across industries in light of the continuing Covid-19 crisis. As the situation continues to evolve, we will further update our guidance as appropriate.

EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP

Labour restructuring

Covid-19 pandemic is having an enormous impact on the employment relationships. Employers have to address the ability to maintain employment relationships or make layoff decisions. As temporary measures, the following can be taken into account:

- (1) reducing working hours and/or salary; or applying unpaid leaves, as for the existing work positions;
- (2) assigning employees to different jobs;
- (3) temporarily ceasing work; or
- (4) temporarily suspending the performance of employment contracts.

It is required to comply with provisions under the Labour Code on new wage, new employment term, advance notification and other requirements. Please refer to the table 1 below for more details on financial liabilities.

Contributions to compulsory funds

1. Contributions to retirement and survivorship funds (22%)

Enterprises may apply for delay in contribution to retirement and survivorship funds until 30 June 2020 (extended to 31 December 2020 depending on development of Covid-19 pandemic), without late payment interest, in case where¹

- 1.1. enterprises engage in passenger transport, tourism, accommodation, restaurants and other special industries;
- 1.2. due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the business is suspended;
- 1.3. due to the Covid-19 pandemic,
 - (a) the numbers of employees participating in social insurance that must temporarily cease to work constitutes at least 50% of the total numbers of employees at the time before business suspension; or
 - (b) enterprises suffer from loss value of which is more than 50% of the total value of assets (excluding the value of land use right).

2. Contributions to other compulsory funds (10%). During the aforesaid delay time under Item (1), enterprises are required to maintain their contributions to other funds including sickness and maternity fund, labour accident and occupational disease fund, health insurance fund and unemployment insurance fund².

3. Contributions to trade union fund. Enterprises may delay in making contributions to the trade union fund until 30 June 2020 (extended to 31 December 2020 depending on development of COVID-19 pandemic) in case where at least 50% of employees participating in the compulsory social insurance temporarily cease to work due to COVID-19 pandemic.³

BANKING LIABILITIES

Credit institutions and branches of foreign banks may apply the following 3 measures to their clients affected by Covid-19: rescheduling of loan repayment, exemption or reduction of interest and/or fees and maintenance of loan category.¹⁷

1. Rescheduling of loan repayment is applicable to principal balances and/or interest (including balances of loans governed by Decree No. 55/2015/ND-CP on credit policies to support agricultural and rural development) (i) arising from lending and financial leasing activities, (ii) of which the repayment of principal and/or interest is due within the period from 23 January 2020 until the date immediately following the end of 3 months from the declaration on elimination of Covid-19 by the Prime Minister and (iii) of which the clients are unable to repay the principal and/or interest on time as agreed due to decrease in revenues and incomes caused by Covid-19.

The above loan balances must fall into either of the following circumstances:

- 1.1 not becoming overdue yet or becoming overdue within 10 days from the due date as agreed in lending or financial leasing agreements; or
 - 1.2 becoming overdue (except for cases at Item 2.a above) within the period from 23 January 2020 until the date immediately following the end of 15 days from the effective date of this Circular. Total rescheduling time upon extension must not exceed 12 months from the expiry date of loan or financial lease tenure.
2. Exemption or reduction of interest and/or fees is applicable to loan balances (i) arising from credit extension activities (excluding purchase of and investment in corporate bonds), (ii) of which the repayment of principal and/or interest is due within the period from 23 January 2020 until the date immediately following the end of 3 months from the declaration on elimination of Covid-19 by the Prime Minister and (iii) of which the clients are unable to repay the principal and/or interest on time as agreed due to decrease in revenue and income caused by Covid-19.
 3. Category of a loan classified at the latest time prior to 23 January 2020 may be maintained in relation to loan balances subject to the rescheduling of loan repayment at Item 2 and the exemption or reduction of interest and/or fees at Item 3. Such loan balances also include any loan balance (a) rescheduled or (b) of which the interest has been exempted or reduced or (c) of which the loan category has been re-classified during the period from 23 January 2020 until the date immediately following the end of 15 days from the effective date of this Circular.
